How it works

ABOUT ECOHEAL

What is EcoHeal, and what do we want?

About Us

EcoHeal is an online platform which connects people across India and the world. It bridges nature lovers, researchers, forest experts, and consultants with communities, industries, and governments who seek sustainable, nature-based solutions.

Our Vision

Our vision is simple: to create an environmentally friendly and sustainable world. EcoHeal will bring resilience to people and communities, industries and governments — preparing everyone for modern challenges.

PLATFORM MODEL

How will it work?

EcoHeal connects three types of people seeking nature-based solutions to a network of trusted service providers.

PHASE 1 — INITIAL LAUNCH

Get started as a Natural Lover

Initially, EcoHeal activates the Natural Lover community first — the platform goes live with nature-related content written by our team. Here's what members can do.

Read our content

Nature-related articles written in-house by our team.

Recent reports

Stay updated with the latest reports we publish.

Publications & Collaborations

See work created with partner organisations.

Silent reading sessions

Join quiet, focused community reading sessions.

Scheduled programmes

Be part of our planned events and activities.

Volunteer, lead, or speak

Join as a volunteer, leader, speaker, or enthusiast.

Contribute-to-nature credits

Earn recognition for your contributions.

Membership

Become an official EcoHeal member.
